VOL. CXV. No. 179. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA TUESDAY, JULY 28, 1914. PRICE, 2 CENTS

MRS. HALL'S TRIAL BEGINS TODAY

Woman Charged with Killing Youthful Husband in Dock.

BETOKENS ANXIETY

Although Evidence Is Purely Circumstantial, Prosecution Confident of Conviction.

Louisa Courthouse, Va., July 28.—The stage is set in Louisa Courthouse for a murder trial that may rival in dramatic intensity the already famous fiasco in Paris, or that may pass along its course in the tedium of routine. Mrs. Victor Hall, who stands indicted for the murder of her husband early on the morning of April 15 in their store at Green Spring Station, is ready for the law's procedure against her, and is a guest at the home of Mrs. Martha Gordon, aunt of her principal attorney, R. Lindsey Gordon. It is said that her mien betokens an anxiety of spirit that she bravely forebore to show when she was arrested on the night of May 14, and Mr. Gordon, former legal adviser for her in all her affairs and her present legal representative, is less confident, it is said, in his appearance than when he sought for and gained bail for his client.

The Louisa Hotel yesterday was crowded from garret to parlor floor with visitors, detectives and witnesses, newspaper representatives and officers of the court. A larger throng was present in the little town today when the trial started upon its course, and Louisa Courthouse entertained more people this week than the town ever has had in its midst before. Judge George S. Shackelford, who is to preside at the trial, arrived here this morning at 8 o'clock, and court convened two hours later. M. J. Fulton, of the law firm of Fulton & O'Flaherty, who has been engaged by the county authorities to assist Commonwealth's Attorney W. C. Bibb, in the prosecution, arrived here yesterday afternoon, and has been in frequent conferences with Mr. Bibb. Mr. Fulton brought with him two court stenographers, who are to relieve each other during the trial, and two typists.

Attorney Hill Carter, who occupied a prominent part in the famous Beattie trial, in which he appeared with Attorney Harry M. Smith, Jr., for the defense, has also been engaged to aid in the defense, and is prepared to come to the scene after the jury shall have been selected and the trial has begun.

Commonwealth's Attorney Bibb said last night that he thought at least two days would be taken up with selecting the twelve good men and true who are to decide upon the innocence or guilt of the accused woman. Forty veniremen have been summoned, a number, it is hoped, sufficiently large from which to select a jury. After the jury has been selected it will take ten days in which to finish the trial, though others believe that a shorter time will be occupied in determining whether Mrs. Hall be innocent or guilty of the murder of her youthful husband.

Evidence against Mrs. Hall is purely circumstantial, but if it be deftly woven into a complete fabric, it will be difficult for her to escape the snares with which those circumstances have beset her path. It will be upon circumstantial evidence alone that the prosecution will rely for conviction. But circumstantial evidence is now generally regarded as stronger than the testimony of eye-witnesses.

SUMMER SCHOOL.

On August 3rd, I shall open a summer school at the Lee School for the purpose of coaching pupils who are deficient in their school work. Terms $2.50 per week for one subject, and special terms for additional classes.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Beef prices have taken a rapid fall since last week, when 16 cents a pound was the lowest price quoted by the Western beef agencies. Yesterday beef sold at 14 and 14 1-2 cents, a maximum drop of 2 cents a pound. Indications point to a further decline of all grades.

Thomas H. Dalton, clerk of the East Boston District Court, shot and killed his five-week-old daughter, Priscilla, seriously wounded his wife and his son, Joseph, five years old, and then killed himself yesterday. Dalton has been at his home for the past two months suffering from a nervous breakdown. The boy is in a critical condition, but it is expected that Mrs. Dalton will recover. Dalton shot the children as they slept.

Argument over the war situation in Europe is believed to have been the cause of the killing of George Wise, an Austrian, by Tom Dorak, also an Austrian, early yesterday in Indianapolis, Ind. Dorak, who used a long-bladed hunting knife, is under arrest.

The taking of testmony at the murder trial of Mme. Joseph Caillaux, charged with the murder of Gaston Calmette, editor of Le Figaro, of Paris, was brought to a close yesterday afternoon amid extraordinary excitement. M. Caillaux, husband of the defendant, took the stand and read the will of the man his wife had killed to prove that Calmette and Le Figaro had sold the influence of that great newspaper to Hungary for a money consderation. By this he put the thought before the jurors that Calmette had acquired his wealth by blackmailing persons whose secrets had been learned by members of his newspaper staff.

Representative Roberts, of Nevada, father-in-law of Walter Johnson, the pitcher, wants the fist fights in the House conducted according to rules. He introduced the following amendment to the rules of the House yesterday: "That the Marquis of Queensbury rules shall govern the House in the settlement of all dsputes wherein the question of personal privilege is involved for words spoken during general debate or extended in the record under leave granted to print and the Speaker of the House shall act as the official referee." The resolution is a sequel to the near fight which occurred the other day between Representative Madden, of Illinois, and Bryan, of Washington.

The greatest Alpine flight on record with a passenger was accomplished yesterday by the Italian aviator, Achillo Landini, who was accompanied by Dr. Lampugnani. They left Navara, Italy, at 5 A. M. and traversed the Monte Rosa range, 15,217 feet in height. They landed safely at Visp at 7:50 o'clock, thus taking nearly three hours to cover a straight 100 miles, but they lost their way in the clouds and suffered greatly from the intense cold.

The little mining town of Telluride, Col., famous the world over, was wiped off the map yesterday as a result of a cloudburst in Cornet Canyon, four miles above the main part of the city. Two women are known to have been drowned and fifteen children were rescued after a wall of water 20 feet high had hit the city.

The vivid illumination of the heavens in the vicinity of Concord, N. H., Sunday evening was explained when some residents of the River Hill district, a fashionable summer resort, came into the city. The district was shaken by the explosion of a mighty meteor. So sharp was the shock that many residents took it for an earthquake. Herbert W. Abbott, of this city, saw the meteor when it broke into fragments, with a flash of light so bright that it blinded him for several seconds. Then after several minutes, he declares, came the sound of the explosion, so deep and so heavy as to cause a perceptible jar of the earth. He says it resembled a huge comet as it swept across the sky, and that in its passage it emitted a glare that lighted up the country.

Three persons are dead and many others suffered from the effects of heat prostration in Chicago yesterday as a result of the return of the torrid wave.

BITTER FEELING IN IRELAND

Emerald Isle Aroused Over Recent Shooting of Nationalists.

CHARGES MASSACRE

Irish Volunteers March Through Dublin Streets—Urge Charge Against Coroner.

Dublin, July 28.—Intense feeling still prevails throughout Ireland as the result of the killing of four persons and the wounding of three score here Sunday by soldiers during an attempt to prevent the smuggling in of a consignment of arms to the Irish volunteers.

Town councils throughout the Island are adopting resolutions, branding the affair as a "massacre" and calling for the punishment of the guilty ones. A verdict from the coroner's jury is expected today.

Dublin, July 28.—Rioting broke out again last night, but subsided without serious results. The rumor was afloat that the Scottish Borderers would entrain at the Amiens Street Station. A great crowd, for the most part from the slums, surrounded the station. The rioters amused themselves by stoning street cars.

Six hundred Volunteers paraded through the streets, a crowd of 4,000 following them, marching in step and singing.

Feeling runs high throughout Nationalist Ireland. Town councils are adopting resolutions denouncing "the massacre." The soldiers of the Limerick and Kilkenny garrisons are confined to barracks, and concerts by military bands in several towns have been cancelled.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin has called a meeting of the magistrates to consider the action of the Castle authorities in calling out the police and soldiers without consulting the city officials. The police threaten a strike unless those members of the department who were dismissed for disobedience of orders are reinstated.

It is announced here that Sir John Ross, the police commissioner resigned as a protest against the suspension of Deputy Commissioner Harrell. The Nationalists are delighted as Commissioner Ross was unpopular.

Sixteen policemen, suspended for refusing to obey orders, were placed under arrest and ordered to remain in barracks, but refused to obey.

STEALS WIFE'S LEG.

Hot Springs, Ark., July 28.—To be deserted by her husband after she had followed implicity his suggestion, which resulted in mortgaging her farm and purchasing a moving picture outfit with part of the proceeds, was a severe shock to Mrs. May McGill, wife of Loun E. McGill, but when her better half departed with his wife's clothes and her cork leg, too, is was just a little bit more than her strong affection for her husband could stand.

McGill was arrested and returned to Hot Springs, from which city he fled. He claimed he had no intention of deserting his wife, that he had merely "struck out" for a new location, and intended writing for her.

Mrs. McGill, who was in the court room on crutches, agreed that if her husband returned her cork leg she would drop the prosecution.

"I could love him if he gives me back my leg," she said.

McGill produced the leg, nad domestic peace was restored.

Accidentally Killed by Wife.

Wise, Va., July 28.—Greed Bevins, white, miner by occupation, with a wife and two children, was accidentally shot and killed with a shotgun in the hands of the wife at Glamorgan a mining town a mile and a half from here. Blevins handed the gun, a double-barrel hammerless, to his wife to put away. She threw it on her arm, discharging it in some way, the entire load entering her husband's left chest, killing him instantly.

ARGUMENTS BEGIN.

Open Clashes Narrowly Averted During Trial of Mme. Caillaux.

Paris, July 28.—Attorneys for the prosecution today began their arguments in the trial of Mme. Caillaux, charged with the murder of Gaston Calmette, editor of Le Figaro. Had the taking of testimony not been concluded open clashes between witnesses would not have surprised Parisians, from the bitterness apparent during the last few days.

From the first the trial has been in the nature of a melodrama, verging at times upon comedy. Spectators mentioned by witnesses have risen in their seats, entered into heated debates, and even hurried to the witness box, where they argued face to face with their adversaries. These arguments have been upon politics, and every possible subject except the shooting of Calmette by the wife of the former premier.

Jules Herbaux, public prosecutor, and Maitre Chenu, repressnting the Calmette heirs, are expected to complete their arguments today. Whether Maitre Labori will deliver his address for the defense today or tomorrow is uncertain.

Enemies of Caillaux today denounced every step in the trial which savored of showing favor to the powerful politician and his beautiful wife.

CHURCH SCOPE LIMITED.

Military Authorities in Mexico Forbid Confessions.

Tampico, July 26, via Laredo, Tex., July 28.—A decree limiting the scope of the Roman Catholic Church in the State of Nuevo Leon, on the ground of "public health, morality, and justice," has been issued by Antonio I. Villarael, Governor and military commander. He said:

"During the life of the nation the church has been a pernicious factor in disruption and discord, and has entirely forgotten its spiritual mission."

The most drastic feature of the decree is the prohibition of confession. Villareal gives as his reason for this the charge that the confessional and the sacristy in Mexico have become a menace to morality.

The decree, issued at Monterey, makes the following orders for government of Catholic schools and churches:

"1. All foreign Catholic priests and Jesuits of whatever nationality, will be expelled from the State of Nuevo Leon.

"2. Of the remaining Catholic priests, those who cannot prove their complete abstention from politics will be expelled.

"3. Churches will remain open daily from 6 in the morning until 1 in the afternoon. Only priests having permission to do so will be permitted to officiate.

"4. Confession is prohibited.

"5. The public is prohibited from entering the sacristy.

"6. Church bells shall ring only to celebrate fiestas in honor of the country or for triumphs of the constitutionalist arms.

"7. All Catholic colleges shall be closed which do not obey the programs and texts ordered by officials, and which do not have at their head some professor who is a graduate of the normal schools of the country, who will be responsible to the government for any infraction of the rules.

"8. Any infraction of these laws will be punishable by a fine of $100 to $500, and arrest and imprisonment from two to four months, or both fine and imprisonment."

Speeding Motorcycle Kills Child.

Paulsboro, N. J., July 28.—Edith, the 8-year-old daughter of Albert Shanken, crossed Delaware street early yesterday evening and in the middle of the thoroughfare was struck by a speeding motorcycle, ridden by Thompson Reed, 17 years old. The child never moved, and when picked up was scarcely breathing. Carried into her home nearby, she expired in a few minutes. Young Reed was arrested and held pending investigation of the fatality. It is asserted that he was riding the machine at reckless speed and had obtained no State license.

AUSTRIAN TROOPS TAKE BELGRADE

Servians Make No Attempt to Defend Capital, but March Out.

PROSPECTS FOR PEACE

England Asks Vienna to Submit Grievances to Conference of European Powers.

Washington, July 28.—Word reaches the Austrian embassy in Paris that two army corps of Austrian troops crossed the Danube into Servian territory last night, and today occupied Belgrade, meeting with no resistance.

Unofficial reports in Berlin, London, and Paris declare a detachment of Austrians invaded Servia at Mitrovitz, fifty miles northwest of Belgrade. The Servians, it is stated, withdrew before the advance of the Austrians.

Unconfirmed reports declared, it was announced in Vienna, that hostilities were opened at daybreak today.

Although acts of war between Austria and Servia have occurred, powerful influences are at work in Europe to prevent further hostilities. They have, at least, gained a day, and hope of success has consequently grown.

Great Britain and Russia are taking the leadership in the peace plans. The Czar's government, warning Austria that she must not invade Servia, is pressing on that empire a diplomatic formula under which Servia would give assurances to Austria that would not violate her national sovereignty and which Austria would be able to accept without appearing to back down.

St. Petersburg's belief seems to be that Russia's prompt and unmistakable attitude has brought Austria to her senses, and it is said that the Austrian ambassador in St. Petersburg is trying to remove the bad impression caused by the ultimatum, declaring that it was not an ultimatum but only a note verbale.

The usual friendly relations between St. Petersburg and Berlin are undisturbed. The military preparations of Russia continue, however, unabated. All news on the Continent is being strictly censored and practically nothing concerning military movements gets through.

Great Britain has asked Austria to assent to the mediation of disinterested powers and submit her grievances to a conference. In this she is backed by France and Italy. Germany has been asked to join in this effort, but has declined to interfere with her ally.

Great Britain and France also are endeavoring to obtain an agreement to prevent a European war in case Austria insists on disciplining Servia. Late dispatches indicate that nether Austria, Russia or Germany has yet shown a disposition to give guarantees.

The official German attitude toward the proposed mediation is unhopeful. Germany offers only partial acceptance. She accepts the principle of mediation between Vienna and St. Petersburg, but not between Vienna and Belgrade. Her effort will be to localize the conflict between Austria and Servia. German official circles insist that no action likely to hamper Austrian plans has the least chance of success and the next developments depend upon Russia.

FORMIDABLE ORDINANCE.

Biggest Gun for Canal—Has Range of 35 Miles.

Watervliet, N. Y., July 28.—Repairs to the monster sixteen-inch gun which will be the Colossus of the Panama Canal fortifications, are nearing completion in the arsenal here.

Some months ago the cannon, which is the biggest specimen ordinance in the world, was turned out at Watervliet factory. Subsequent tests at the Sandy Hook proving station showed that its projectile could pierce twelve-inch armer set eleven miles away from the firing point.

The tremendous powers of the gun, destined to guard the Pacific entrance to the canal, are not easily appreciated. The cannon itself is 50 feet in length, and weighs 142 tons. Its projectile, over 6 feet long, tips the scales at 2,400 pounds. More than a quarter of a ton of powder is needed to discharge this destructive bullet. Although capable of carrying at least 35 miles, this iron and steel boned agent of death can be accurately bulls-eyed at 22 to 23 miles.

Boy Rescuer Killed.

Pottsville, Pa., July 28.—"Don't climb that tree, Jim," said a number of his playmates to James Williams, aged 10 years, as he was about to ascend a horse chestnut tree to rescue a playmate, caught in the tree and unable to get down.

The boy did not heed the warning because the one considerably younger than he was in a perilous position and about to lose his balance nad fall.

He climbed the tree, nad a moment later crashed through the limbs and fell to the ground, striking his head on a curbstone and fracturing his skull in two places. He died at the Pottsville Hospital this afternoon.

LABOR UNIONS AND PROHIBITION

Measure Has Adversely Affected Cigarmakers of Country.

MANY BLIND TIGERS

Reports Also Show that Cost of Living Has Increased Under Prohibition in Other States.

Richmond, July 28.—That many members of the Cigarmakers' International Union of America have been driven out of business by prohibition is one of the statements contained in a circular letter signed by G. W. Perkins, international president of the Cigarmakers' Union.

His letter is peculiarly interesting at this time, in view of hostility to tobacco entertained by workers for Statewide prohibition.

At the Baltimore convention of cigarmakers President Perkins was directed to find out through the various locals in the United States and Canada the effect of prohibition on the cigar industry.

Reports were recived from 136 locals to the effect that prohibition had been tried in their territories; that 5,691 cigarmakers were employed before prohibition and that during prohibition 1,247 members of the organization lost employment.

Further reports showed that 113 blind tigers were being operated in defiance of the law. Ninety-five unions reported that drunkenness had not decreased under prohibition. Eighteen unions reported that drunkenness had increased. Sixty-nine unions reported that the cost of living had increased under prohibition. Eighty unions reported that during prohibition the use of drugs increased.

The States in which cigarmakers were driven out of business by prohibtion are, according to the reports by President Perkins, Georgia, Kansas and Tennessee.

Georgia is now in the throes of a fight against cigarettes. An anti-cigarette bill, similar to the one recently introduced in the Louisiana Assembly, has been introduced in its Legislature. The bill is said to have the support of those who are affiliated with the State-wide prohibition forces.

Cigarettes have already been made contraband articles in Arkansas, Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, and Wisconsin. Efforts are now being made to add Georgia to the list. Virginia will, it is believed, come next if Statewide prohibition should by any possibilty become the policy of the State.

The Southern General Methodist Conference and the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church have put themselves on record against the use of tobacco in any form by ministers and candidates for the ministry. The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church extended its condemnation of the use of tobacco to church officials. It is reasonable to suppose that eventually tobacco will be forbidden communicants.

These resolutions and events occurring in Virginia led the Richmond Tobacco Trade to issue a warning recently to tobacco growers in Virginia to the effect that "the forces leading the fight for the adoption of Statewide prohibition" here have begun a fight against tobacco.

Tobacco growers in the United States raise over 900,000,000 lbs. of tobacco annually. Something like 15,000,000,000 cigarettes are made. Some of these, however, are made of imported tobacco. The number of cigarettes made in the United States of domestic tobacco and placed on the American markets is estimated 10,000,000,000 a year.

Greece Will Help Servia.

Constantinople, July 28.—The Greek Minister here declares that in the event of war between Austria-Hungary and Servia, Greece would be compeled to dispatch 100,000 troops to the assistance of Servia.

Entered into rest at the home of his daughter in Maryland, on the 25th of last June, Major John W. Green, C. S. A., in the 87th year of his age.

Major Green was, except during the last few years, when the infirmities of age prevented, an earnest worker in St. Paul's Church and Sunday school. He served lovingly and faithfully as vestryman, registrar and warden, extending over a period of 60 years.

Major Green never failed at the call of duty, in peace or in war, and he was ever ready to serve his church and his State. He died as he lived—a true soldier of the cross. Resolved:

That, in the death of Major Green St. Paul's Church has lost a devoted member, the church at large a faithful servant, and this community a valued citizen. Resolved.

Republicans Considering Advisability of Placing Congressional Candidate in Field.

A convention of the Republicans in the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, which includes Alexandria and ten surrounding counties, will be held in this city on September 9th for the purpose of selecting a candidate to oppose Hon. Charles C. Carlin, the Democratic nominee for Congress. This action was decided upon yesterday when a meeting of the executive committee of the Eighth District was held in this city at the Hotel Rammel for the purpose of considering the situation. H. P. Dodge, district chairman, presided and S. H. Sager, of Herndon, acted as secretary. Delegates from Alexandria City were J. A. Eggborn, Joseph L. Crupper and Harry B. Quinn.

There have been no names mentioned of prospective candidates before the convention, but it is declared that there are a number of leading Republicans who are willing to make the fight against the Democratic nominee. The Eighth District is strongly Democratic and the Republicans have not placed a candidate in the field against Mr. Carlin for several years.

It is stated that the action of the District Committee follows the determination of the State Executive Committee to place candidates for Congress in every district in the State.

Attempts have been made during the past half century to break the solid Eighth District, but Democracy, like a rock in the angry billows, has withstood all such endeavors. There is much less chance now than ever before for a Republican candidate.

In 1869 Charles Whittlesey, nominated by Republicans, was snowed under by Lewis McKenzie. At the next election McKenzie was the Republican candidate and Elliott M. Braxton the Democratic standard-bearer. The latter was elected by a good majority. Eppa Hunton was occasioned some annoyance by James Barber, an independent, later on, but the former was elected. The late Park Agnew, who was popular with both parties, made a creditable run against the regular Democratic candidate, but he, too, was defeated. In subsequent years Pat McCaull and others of lesser light have been Republican readjuster and Bull Moose candidates for Congress in the Eighth District. Such, however, were never seriously considered. Should the Republicans place a man in the field he will create but a small ripple upon the political waters at present.

CHARGES AGAINST THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

President Fairfax Harrison, of the Southern Railway, made a wonderfully clear defense of his company in Washington yesterday before the special committee investigating the coal rate situation in the South. It was a complete denial of the charges presented by B. L. Dulaney, independent coal operator of Bristol, Tenn., whom Mr. Harrison declared was suffering from a "delusion of persecution."

During the course of his testimony Mr. Harrison said:

"I resent with every fibre of my being the charges of bad faith and chicanery brought against the organization of the Southern, and I think I am supported therein by that great mass of people who have done business with us in the South. I feel a further resentment at the charge that the direction of the policy of the Southern Railway has been in outside hands, and that the management has been for any other interest than that of the South. The ambition and policy of the Southern has been to take a part in the regeneration of the South, and in that policy its officers and management all along has shaped its course."

After watching the course of the Southern Railway for the past 20 years we can state our complete faith in the above statement made by Mr. Harison. During that period of time the Southern has had three executives who have vied with one another in their endeavors to build up the South. The last of these, Mr. Harrison, has even gone farther than his predecessor, Mr. Finley, whom we thought, several years ago, had about reached the limit of development work that could come within the legitimate operations of a railroad company.

President Harrison gave confirmation of the intention of the Southern to build immediately at Charleston, S. C., an independent coal terminal, largely for Panama Canal traffic. Engineers are now at work on the plans and it will take nine months to complete the work.

THE EFFECTS OF RASHNESS

Among the text books of the fathers of the present generation were a series of readers prepared by the late Dr. McGuffey, of the University of Virginia. In one of these books was a chapter headed "Effects of Rashness," in which several pathetic stories showing the remorse which followde precipitate acts are told. An Indiaman killed a mongoose which he supposed had attacked his infant son, when, to his horror, he later discovered that the little animal had destroyed a cobra which was crawling toward the crib of his sleeping child. Another told of a falcon overturning a cup of water its owner was about to drink. The man became so impatient that he seized the bird, threw it violently to the ground and caused its death. He subsequently discovered that the water was poisoned and that the falcon in overturning the cup had saved his life.

The account of the shooting of Eugene Newman, an eighteen-year-old youth, by the father of his bride in Haverstraw, N. Y., has been read throughout the United States during the past few days. The slaying of the young man was due to the fact that the irate father went off, as we say, half cocked. He did not take time to ascertain whether or not the young couple had been married, and made a widow of his daughter at the threshold of her womanhood.

Two families have thus been plunged into poignant sorrow by the rash act of a man who is now suffering great mental torture, while the condition of the young widow, thus suddenly clad in weeds, is causing anxiety lest her physical and mental powers give way under the terrible strain to which she has been subjected.

The old story of Abelard and Heloise has been read for centuries. In the Pere-Lachaise cemetery in Paris the tomb of the ill-stared couple causes all acquainted with their history to stop and mediate upon their checkered career. Abelard, a man of powerful intellect and magnetism, unfortunately met the confiding Heloise. Her mental powers were also abnormally developed. Their relations were at first platonic, but intellect and passion, unfortunately, are too often twin sisters. We have no intention of repeating the story. It can be found in any enclycopedia, but Mark Twain's 'Innocent Abroad contains the best account. A midnight marriage followed, but the cruel uncle of the bride, with a band of fierce followers, soon brought disaster to the young couple. The dismal mantle withered the lives of both, and when death finally brought their sorrows to a close their remains were placed side by side in the same tomb. They had been parted on earth, but united in death.

Eugene Newman, the eighteen year-old groom, has finished his course. His twenty-one-year widow now pining away, may follow soon in his wake, when, like Orpheus and Eurydice, they will be found roaming the Elysian fields hand-in-hand far removed from revengeful sires.

TIME FOR THE "PROPHETS."

Long before the days of Charlemagne certain persons who read prophecy have imagined every time a threatening war cloud appears that the end of the world or "soncummation of the age" was drawing near. When Napoleon was meeting with such success the Corsican was recognized by some as the Anti-Christ and ingenious deductions concerning the import of his name were made. During the civil war in America other equally knowing people saw in that conflict the rising of the king of the north against the king of the south, mentioned in the Book of Daniel and supposed the end of terrestrial affairs was imminent.

The Caesars, Charlemayne and Napoleon paid the debt of nature and normal conditions followed, while the war between the north and south was followed by a long period of peace and the expansion of the United States far beyond the dreams of the founders of the republic. The sun rises and sets as usual and the seasons come and go with their wonted precision.

It may not be generally known, but a large and growing sect in this country have calculated, to their own satisfaction, that the year 1914 will witness the final collapse and that the age of grace which set in over nineteen centuries ago will come to an end before the first of next January.

The present outlook in the Balkans, that storm centre of the old world, has again stirred the "prophetic" spirits. Some evangelists who spoke in the large cities Sunday announced that the battle of Armageddon is now at our doors, as nation is rising against nation and wars and rumors of war are rife, according to the Scriptural forecast.

While statesmen view the horizon wth anxiety, the cloud which is now hovering over Europe is no blacker than others of by-gone days. Besides there is a faint hope of it becoming scattered. A bright sun is on the other side. Let us hope it will soon penetrate the dismal curtain.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Cape Cod Canal will be opened tomorrow.

The British steamship Missouri passed Gravesend yesterday evening with her bows damaged. She reported having been in collision with the Red Star Line steamer Zeeland, the damage to which vessel was not known.

New York insurance men refused temporarily yesterday afternoon to write any more insurance on gold for shipment to Europe on the big transatlantc liners. Fear that the gold might be captured on the high seas in the event of a general European war was the cause of their action.

Three Chicago burglars early yesterday smothered to death a 6-month-old baby boy and left his mother, Mrs. Mary Reese, a witness to the crime, bound and gagged beside the tiny corpse for three hours until her husband returned home. The burglars stuffed a blanket end down the baby's throat when he screamed.

A dispatch from St. Etienne, France, says three young girls were killed, three mortally injured, and forty hurt, many of them seriously, as the result Sunday of the giving away of a large stony mass at Valfleury, called "The Rock of Calvary." The members of a Catholic gymnastic society had been massed on the rock during a pilgrimage, and the priest had just given them his benediction, when the rock tumbled down the footpath, knocking over many children.

William V. Cleary, political boss of Rockland County, N. Y., was arraigned at Haverstraw yesterday on the charge of murdering his 18-year-old son-in-law, Eugene Newman. Cleary waived examination and was taken to the county jail in New City, where he is held without bail, pending the action of the Grand Judy in September. Cleary was very nervous. He did not speak a word while in the court house.

HAIL THREE INCHES DEEP.

Shamokin's Worst Storm in Recent Years Destructive.

Shamokin, Pa., June 28.—The worst storm that has visited Shamokin and vicinity in many years swept the region yesterday afternoon. Rain descended in torrents, flooding the entire downtown districts. Hailstones as large as walnuts fell, covered the city streets to a depth of three to four inches, and thousands of window panes and electric lights were broken, trees uprooted, cellars flooded and telephone and telegraph lines thrown out of commission.

The mercury dropped from 90 degrees to 50, and remained close to that point until the hail had melted from the streets.

The damage to crops in rural sections is inestimable. No loss of life has been reported, although many pedestrians were injured.

When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. PASTORS TO RESIGN.

Rev. Messrs. Young And Smart Will Accept Chairs in New University.

Richmond, July 28.—Rev. W. J. Young, D. D., pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, the largest church of its denomination in the city, has been elected, according to information received here as one of the faculty of the new Methodist University, which is to be established in Atlanta. Dr. Young will occupy the chair of homiletics and theology in the theological department of the university, which will be opened in temporary quarters on October 1, though the university itself will hardly open before another year has passed.

Dr. Young stated last night that he had been formally notified of his election to this important post, and said that he had accepted.

Charlottesville, Va., July 28.—Following the morning sermon at the First Methodist Church Sunday, the pastor, Rev W. Allen Smart announced that during the past week he had been offered through those in close touch with the organization of a faculty for the new university in Atlanta, to be fostered by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South the chair of biblical literature, and that after prayerful consideration and conference with the higher authorities of the church, he had accepted the position.

WILSON TO TAKE STUMP.

President Expects to Be Very Busy in October—Will Defend Party Policies.

Washington, July 28.—President Wilson will go upon the stump in defense of his policies and incidentally bring before the attention of the people the virtues of those Democratic candidates for the Senate and House, whose territory is looked upon as being doubtful.

This hint was dropped by the President himself yesterday to a number of callers at the White House. A. R. Rodgers, who called to extend the President an invitation to attend the pure food convention at Boston, October 5 to 31, was informed that the President "expected to be very busy during October." Other callers received similar assurances.

This is interpreted as meaning but one thing—that the President will go upon the stump during that month and will take an active part in the campaign. This being true, there is little doubt but that he will make two or possibly three speeches in Pennsylvana for his friend, A. Mitchell Palmer, who of late has been a most frequent caller at the Executive office.

New York would also be included in itinerary of the Presidential trip.

The big majority of these Congressmen have stood loyally by the President in his tariff, his currency and his anti-trust program, and the President believes that when the people in New York and other States get all the facts concerning these measures that they will support the candidates of his party.

He has accepted complete responsibility for the action of Congress in its support of these measures and he intends to take the stump in the defense of those who have remained faithful to him.

The President is hopeful that Congress will adjourn by September, so that he wil be able to spend a few weeks at Cornish before entering actively into the fall campaign.

TO PAY CONFEDERATE HEIRS

Deficiency Bill, as Agreed on, Contains Provision.

Washington, July 28.—Complete agreement on the Sundry Civil and General Deficiency Appropriations bills were reached yesterday by the Senate and House conferees. The Indian Appropriation is the only supply measure left in conference.

The Sundry Civil bill authorizes the President to rearrange the customs collection districts without increasing their number.

A provision in the General Deficiency bill authorizes the Treasury to adjust claims for $175,000 due heirs of Confederate officers in connection with prior service in the United States Army. The heirs of Robert E. Lee, Fitzhugh Lee, "Stonewall" Jackson and other Southern heroes are among those who would benefit

Brumback's Barn Burned.

TAKEN BACK TO VIRGINIA.

Detectives Capture Alexandria County Jail Breakers.

Washington, July 28.—Arrested by central detectives on the charge of Central Office Detectives O'Dea and Springman, Joseph Williams, one of the three youths who made a sensational escape from the Alexandria county jail, at Fort Myer Heights, early Sunday morning, and Joseph Als, John Hodges, and George W. Hagen, alleged to have been implicated in the delivery, were today turned over to the county authorities. All were locked up in the county jail where a close watch is being kept against a possible attempt at another jail delivery.

Williams was found by Detective O'Dea walking through the Mall late yesterday afternoon. An hour later O'Dea and Springman located Als, Hodges, and Hagen at a camp on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, near the District line. Joseph Mullen and John Norman, the other two who escaped from jail with Williams, are still at large.

According to the story told by Hodges the delivery was planned several days ago, the youths at the camp deciding to make a desperate effort to free Williams and Mullen, who were confined in a cell on the bottom tier. A saw and other tools were obtained.

Hodges told the detectives that Als and Hogan did not accompany him to the jail Sunday morning, and were not directly implicated in the delivery. The saw was passed inside to Williams and Mullen who, with Norman, a prisoner in a cell on the second tier, cut the bars and escaped.

Mullen and Williams, Washington youths, were arrested with several other young men at Fredericksburg, Va., about two weeks ago and brought to Alexandria county to answer charges growing out of the robbery of a store near Del Ray. Both live in Washington. Norman lives in Alexandria and was serving a sentence for vagrancy.

Jailer Johnson was aroused just as the three youths were escaping through an opening made by sawing a bar in Norman's cell. He sounded an alarm and opened fire with a revolver, but the shots went wild and the trio escaped.

Johnson said there were a crowd of fifteen or twenty youths near the jail when he discovered the delivery, but this was denied by Hodges and Williams.

PREPARE FOR LONG HIKE.

Militia Begin Manoeuvres Today Which Will End in Mimic Battle.

Gordonsville, Va., July 28.—Routine work was practically forgotten here last night by the Virginia militiamen, who were making preparations for the long hike today, which will culminate in a grand meeting of two large armed forces on Wednesday. The troops will leave camp in the afternoon, and will spend the night in the field. Manoeuvring for position will begin early the following morning and the two "armies" will meet, probably in the afternoon.

The two forces will be known as the Reds and Blues. The First and Second Regiments, under Colonels Perry and Leedy, will form the first, and the Fourth Regiment and Richmond Light Infantry Blues Battalion, under Colonel Goodwin and Major E. W. Bowles, will be the opposing forces.

The two forces will not follow the same route, and their position will be unknown to the opposing commander. Orders covering the various movements to be executed will be issued, but the officers will be compelled to use their own initiative in executing them. Blank ammunition will be distributed before the battle begins.

The heat here yesterday was intense, but did not deter the militia men from drilling even longer than scheduled.

More than a score were overcome by the heat, and the field ambulances were kept on the run during the drill periods.

Woman's Duty to Herself.

Every woman owes it to herself to keep in good health. No one can reasonably be expected to maintain a cheerful disposition when half sick. Indigestion and constipation are two of the most common ills to which women are subject and fortunately are easily cured. Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa., writes: "Last summer I was advised by a friend to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation. This medicine not only cured me of these disorders, but toned up my whole system so that my health has been better than for years since taking them." For sale by all dealers.
